THE LEIGH-ON-SEA COCKLE BOAT & DUNKIRK 'LITTLE SHIP'

ENDEAVOUR

Endeavour was built in 1924 in Leigh-On-Sea where she spent most of her working life. In May 1940 Endeavour joined the 700 'little ships' that helped rescue British and French soldiers from the beaches of Dunkirk in 'Operation Dynamo'. The evacuation lasted nine days and 338,000 allied troops were rescued. Prime Minister Winston Churchill called the operation 'a miracle of deliverance'.

Endeavour is predominantly moored in the creek just west of The Peterboat and is cared for by the Leigh-On-Sea Endeavour Trust.
